SCOTT DAMAGE CASE SUBMITTED

Argument Is Concluded In Suit For Damages

The damage suit of Mrs. Nettie L. Scott against the Territory was submitted to the Supreme Court this morning after argument by Deputy Attorney General Andrews and M. F. Scott for his wife, the complainant. Before the case was submitted Chief Justice Hartwell took occasion to make some comments on the general aspect of the case as presented and stated that he feared that Mrs. Scott had been ill-advised.

The argument during the morning more in a large degree upon the question involved in the delegating of appointive power over teachers to a minority by the whole board, Justice Wilder questioned whether it could be done, Mr. Andrews taking the position that it was proper as far as purely routine matters were concerned, such as the appointment of teachers. Scott declared that the Commissioners were exceeding their power when they delegated such an important function to a committee.

JAPANESE CRUISER BRINGS NOBLEMAN

The first class Japanese cruiser Idzumo, which has just visited San Francisco at the time of the Portola festival, is soon to pay Honolulu a visit. The war vessel has sailed from the California port and is now touring down the west coast of America; making several calls en route. The Idzumo is due here on November 18, according to late advices which have been received by the Japanese consul at this port. The cruiser has a distinguished passenger on board in the person of Prince Shimizu, whose sister, as Princess Kuni, passed through Honolulu on the Tenyo Maru some weeks ago.

FIRE THE BLAST AND SEE THE LADY JUMP.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 5.—In the Court of Chancery today Vice-Chancellor Walker ordered the Delaware River Quarry & Construction Company to set off a heavy blast in its quarries next Saturday at noon to test the effect on the nerves of Mrs. Eva L. Parent, who complains that the heavy blasts rack her nerves and make her life miserable. She wants the blasting stopped.

The quarry owners say she lives in a tumble-down house, where the ceiling plaster is loose and where there is no putty on the windows. They allege she is unreasonably sensitive.

The Vice-Chancellor ordered that the blast be fired and that a Master in Chancery, with stenographer and one expert on each side, be present to note the effect on the woman and on her property.

NO BIDDERS FOR OLELIENA ACRES

Noon "Sale" At The Capital Proves Abortive

The auction sale of four hundred and eighty-six acres of South Okeana lands was not exactly a success this morning. It was expected that there would be a desire upon the part of someone to acquire the lands, but when the noon hour arrived and the attaches of the Territorial land department were ready to receive the rush of citizens who want some Okeana acreage it was more than usually quiet about the Capitol. There was no prospective bidder present or in sight and when it was a quarter past the hour the auction of Okeana lands, per advertisement, was abandoned, and the Territory is still the possessor of the land.

It was presumed that some of the plantation interests adjoining the acreage would be bidders this morning but none of them apparently want to add to their holdings. The South Okeana lands adjoin those of Kapaa, the water rights being largely in the control of the Mahee Sugar Company and George Fairchild. Without the water which can only be secured from the mauka sections controlled by the plantation it is stated that the land would be practically valueless.

DECLARE KATO WIELDED KNIFE

Five witnesses have come forward and made positive declaration before Deputy Sheriff Rose that Kato, a Japanese, was the man that wielded the knife in the cutting affray at Kaili valley on last Sunday in which Fukui, a fellow countryman, was severely injured.

The Japanese present at the time that the dispute between Kato and Fukui over a four-bit piece was taking place, were rounded up by the detectives today. Their testimony has corroborated all that has heretofore been deduced by the officers.

The story gathered is that Kato and several other Japanese were present at the house of a friend in Kaili when the premises were visited by Fukui, who Kato claims was his debtor to the amount of fifty cents. A demand was made for the outstanding indebtedness and Fukui became angered at the public dunning for the over-due account.

In an encounter which followed, Fukui is alleged to have pulled a knife and endeavoring to inflict injury to the struggling Kato. Both fought for the possession of the knife and in the melee Kato received the stabs which sent him to the Queens Hospital for repairs.

JAPANESE SORE ARMS.

It required the friendly offices of the police to separate Punada, a battle-scarred veteran of the Japanese wars, from the idea that he could go about the streets of Honolulu bearing a loaded shooting iron. He was found carrying a gun, which was prepared for business of extermination. His case will receive attention before Judge Andrade on Thursday morning.

VIDA IN COURT—HORSE WAS TIED

The police brought Will Vida, a local hackman, before the tribunal of justice this morning upon a charge of having left his horse unhitched on a public thoroughfare. Vida denied the allegation and proved that he had left the animal tied. He was dismissed with a warning.

Mori's Attorneys Will Ask For An Acquittal

All of the efforts and resources of the three attorneys who are defending Mori, the Japanese who attempted to assassinate Editor Sheba, on August 3 last, are directed toward an attempt to show that there was no premeditation in the assault.

It is on the sole ground of an absence of premeditation that the jury will be asked to acquit the defendant, the indictment against Mori charging an "intent to commit murder."

City and County Attorney Cathcart, who, with Mr. Prosser, is conducting the case of the prosecution, concluded his cross-examination of Mori this morning. The defendant denied repeatedly that he had any intention of murdering Sheba but adhered to his original story that he simply intended to "punish" him for what he conceived to be a personal insult.

A lengthy argument ensued when Attorney Douthitt for the defense queried of the Salvation Army as to Mori's reputation for "truth and veracity." Cathcart objected on the ground that the question of "truth and veracity" did not enter into the matter of Mori's guilt under the indictment. Douthitt argued that it would tend to establish an added credibility to Mori's explanations of the reasons that prompted him in making the attack.

Attorney James Coke, who employed Mori as an interpreter, took the stand and stated that his reputation for "peace and quietness" was good.

TOUCHING VERSE.

At first she touches up her hair
To see if it's in place,
And then with manner debonaire
She touches up her face.
A touch to curls behind her ear,
A touch to silken collar,
And then she's off to hubby dear—
To touch him for a dollar.
